

(Go-live Notification) SSE's New Bond System Go-live on

20th December

The relevant matters related to the go-live arrangement are hereby notified as follows:

- 1) The New Bond System will be officially launched on 20th December, 2021 and a special protection period is going to be enforced from 21th December to 24th December. All clients please pay attention to the health of the production system.
- 2) After the launch, the new bond Level-2 market data does not support rebuild, please do not initiate rebuild requests.

